TO HELP YOU PACK

- Bedding etc. Bring all your own bedding, towels, toiletries and a flashlight!
- We're in the mountains. Bring warm clothes.
- The book exchange is always popular. Bring books you don't need any more, take new ones!
- Bibles. Bring your Bible!
- Though the water in the cabins is not potable at this time, drinking water is available in the Lodge. We encourage you to bring along a water bottle to re-fill in the Lodge for your personal use.
- Keenagers camp is FREE. But if you would like to donate towards the work God is doing at Crowsnest Lake Bible Camp so that they can continue to provide a fee-free camping experience that would be great!
- If you would like to contribute to the running of the camp, your gifts payable to Crowsnest Lake Bible Camp will always be appreciated.
- If you are bringing your own RV or trailer, camp washrooms and a limited number of electrical hookups are available.

WHEN YOU ARRIVE

First of all go into the camp office, where staff will register your arrival and direct you to your accommodation for the weekend.

Registration starts at 4:00pm. Nothing much else will happen until supper at about 6:00pm. An ideal arrival time would be between 4:00 and 5:00.

The weekend wraps up immediately after lunch on Monday.
